

Disastrous Fire Sweeps West Liberty

Fire Originated in Day & Davis' Store at 12 O'clock Monday Night. Cause Unknown.

Large General Store of Day & Davis, General Store of Dorsa Keeton, Grocery Store of Henry Cole, Barber Shop, Carter Building and Methodist Church Totally Destroyed.

HEROIC WORK OF BUCKET BRIGADE SAVES COLE HOTEL AND OTHER BUILDINGS.

West Liberty was visited Monday night by the most disastrous fire in the history of the town. The fire originated up stairs in Day & Davis' store from some unknown cause and was beyond control when discovered. The flames quickly spread to the Arcade building, owned and occupied by Dorsa Keeton as a general store. The fighters worked hard trying to prevent the fire from reaching the Arcade but on account of having no ladders of sufficient length to reach the roof were unsuccessful. After the fire reached the Arcade there was no possible chance of saving any of the remaining buildings in the row from there to the Methodist church, and all hands turned their attention to removing goods from the stores and to the work of saving the Cole Hotel and Oakley & Lykins' store. It looked for awhile as though the hotel could not be saved but the heroic work of the fighters together with the absence of high winds and aided by recent rains it was saved.

It was four hours from the time the fire first started till the danger was considered past. It was about 11:45 when the fire was first discovered and the alarm given. The whole town was aroused and everybody assisted in trying to extinguish the flames and saving the contents of the buildings. Very few articles were saved from Day & Davis' store, but the contents of the other buildings were all saved. A good many things that were saved were carried to the opposite side of the street were greatly damaged by the intense heat. The Cole Hotel was damaged considerably by the blistering of the paint on the entire front facing the burning buildings.

All of the buildings were frame and not even a charred post was left standing.

The general store of Oakley &

Lykins was also damaged considerably by water which was carried in the front way in buckets and taken up stairs and thrown against the side of the house from the windows, a good deal of it being spilt while carrying it through the building and up the stairs.

The loss is estimated at between $12,000 and $15,000, with only $5,500 insurance. The insurance was all carried by S. W. Cecil and Day & Davis. Mr. Cecil having $2,000 on his store building and Day & Davis $3,500 on their stock of goods. The other property owners and merchants occupying the buildings were unable to get insurance because of the location and kind of buildings.

LATER — Since writing the above we have learned that the cause of the fire was a defective stove pipe which reached from the stove down stairs to the room above where the fire originated.

Marriage of Miss Lucy Fogg to Mr. Lawson Comes As Surprise to Friends.

The marriage of Miss Lucy Fogg and Mr. C. E. Lawson was celebrated Thursday evening in the home of the bride on the South Side at six o'clock.

It was a quiet affair, but very beautiful, only the immediate family of the bride witnessing the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. F. W. Eberhardt, pastor of the Baptist church.

The house was beautifully decorated with pink and white chrysanthemums and potted plants, and was a lovely setting for the affair.

The handsome bride wore an elegant gown of brown, with hat to match, and it was most becoming to her brunette beauty. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses.

The ceremony concluded, the bridal pair, together with the bride's mother and sisters, enjoyed a splendid dinner, after which Mr. and Mrs. Lawson left for a trip in the East.

Mrs. Lawson is one of the most admired young ladies in the Capital City, talented and charming.

Mr. Lawson is a valued employee of the Hoge-Montgomery Shoe Co., and was a former resident of Morgan county. Since coming here to make his home he has made many friends, who will congratulate him on winning such a lovely bride.—Frankfort News-Journal.

Mr. Lawson and wife visited his old home the first of the week and his many friends and former neighbors were glad to extend congratulations in which the Courier heartily joins.

NOTICE TO DEBTORS.

Those owing me by note or account will please call and settle at once as I will be forced, on account of my recent loss by fire, to push collections with all possible dispatch. I hope this notice will be sufficient and that I will not have to make a second appeal.

Yours very truly,
D. R. KEETON.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. John Ewing and family, of Riverton, Ky., visited Wm. Short and family last week.

Charley Cecil and wife, of Hazel Green, visited relatives here last week.

county, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. H. V. Nickell.

WILLIAMS-LACY.

Married Wednesday evening at the residence of Rev. J. H. Cottle, of Forest, Miss Vernie Williams and Mr. Curtis Lacy. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Williams and is a handsome and attractive young lady. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Lacy, (Mrs. Lacy now deceased) and is a prominent young farmer and stockman, well-known throughout Morgan and adjoining counties.

The best wishes of the Courier and the host of friends of the happy couple go with them.

To The Democrats of Morgan Co.

I desire, through the columns of the Courier, to congratulate you one and all for the splendid showing made by you at the polls last Tuesday, and to thank you for your loyalty and hearty co-operation. It was a splendid fight and a splendid victory, and was not the work of one man nor of a few men but was made possible by the combined efforts of the Democratic voters of the county, and to you it gives me pleasure to give the praise and the credit, for to you the credit justly belongs.

Very sincerely yours,
R. S. COLLIER.

Take your old hat to Mrs Hurt to be made over.

M'CREARY IS ELECTED, 30,000 MAJORITY

GREAT VICTORY For DEMOCRATS

Entire Democratic State Ticket Elected

Democratic Gains In Both Houses of The General Assembly.

ELEVENTH DISTRICT FALLS DOWN ON JUDGE O'REAR

Substantial Democratic Gains Reported From Other States.

Victory? Yes—but how about the majority? Sweeping decisive, phenomenal. A reversal of more than fifty thousand in four years.

The cause—Taftism, Aldrichism, Willsonism, O'Rearism, Powersism and Langlyism. Judge O'Rear tried O, so hard to keep national issues out of the campaign, but no! The people demanded a discussion of them and it had to come. The people have spoken in no uncertain tones in repudiation of Republican policies in the State and Nation.

Returns showing the majorities of the other Democratic nominees for State office are not available but it is believed that they ran but little behind their leader. The Congressional Districts that are Democratic increased their majorities, while the Tenth was wrested from the Republicans by more than 2,000. The Eleventh District, the Republican Gibraltar in Kentucky, instead of giving O'Rear 35,000 as the leaders claimed, fell down to 12,000. Its usual majority is about 20,000. McCreary's majority in Morgan county is 685, a gain of nearly 300 since last November. Montgomery county, O'Rear's former home, gave McCreary 425. Franklin county, the present home of Judge O'Rear gave a Democratic majority of over 1,600. Breathitt county fell back to line to the tune of 669 majority for McCreary. Magoffin county's Republican majority was reduced from 700 to less than 500. The Republicans also lost heavily in the Sandy Valley.

Ollie James' district rolled up the magnificent majority of 11,000 for the Democratic ticket which is just 1,000 short of O'Rear's majority in the Eleventh.

Hon. B. S. Wilson, (Democrat) was elected Representative from the Bath-Rowan district by 225. The Breathitt-Lee-Magoffin district, largely Republican, also elected a Democratic Representative, Hon. A. B. Hatton, of Jackson, Ky.

The Democrats also made substantial gains in other States where State elections were held Tuesday.

The Democratic landslide in Kentucky last Tuesday will have great influence upon the presidential election throughout the country next fall.

TRIES TO WRECK TRAIN

Watchfulness of Engineer and Quick Work of Train Crew Avert Awful Tragedy.

CROSS TIE PLACED ON TRACK BY UNKNOWN PERSONS.

On last Saturday night as the special train bearing a crowd of nearly 150 people, a great many of whom were women and children, neared Stacy Fork the engineer discovered an object on the track just ahead. Hastily applying the air brake the train was brought to a standstill within a few yards of two cross-ties which had been placed on the rails in such a manner that derailment would have been inevitable had the train not been stopped upon the moment. The work of putting the ties on the track had been done by some one who was on to his job and there is no question about his intentions. That he or they intended to wreck the train there is not the least doubt. The train was carrying a party which had been to Cannel City to hear Congressman Sherley speak, and was crowded to its utmost capacity. The officials of the railroad are very indignant over the cowardly act and say they will spare no pains to bring the guilty party to justice.

See Mrs. Hurt's line of Up-to-Date HATS. Her samples of Tailored Suits, Coats and Skirts are as handsome as can be found anywhere.

LAST NOTICE!

Unless those who are owing us come in and make settlements AT ONCE we will be compelled to enforce collection. Our business must be closed and ALL persons knowing themselves indebted to us, either by note or account, must come in and make settlement. We trust this will be heeded at once and save us further trouble.

Very respectfully,
WOMACK & TURNER.

The Vindications of an Old Field.

The winner in the Boys' Corn Growing contest in Walker county, the boy who made 214 bushels of corn on one acre of land, says in his report that the acre of land he cultivated in this contest had been in cultivation for about fifty years and that under the old system of farming usually produced about thirty bushels to the acre.

Yet this lad, working his acre according to the best methods, carefully selecting his seed, putting the seed bed in splendid condition, fertilizing the land heavily, tending it with every care, was able to make 214 bushels of corn on one acre!

What a vindication for the half-century-old field, and what an indictment for the ordinary system of corn cultivation! And when these boys, who easily raise 100, 150 and 200 bushels of corn to the acre, at a cost of 10 cents a bushel up, become men, and this system of farming is the rule instead of the exception, what wealth is going to wrought from Georgia fields every year!

be accomplished in the northwest corner of Georgia. Now that he has led the way the organization should be kept up from year to year. Here in Walker in 1912 we should have at least a hundred boys competing in the corn growing contest, and the prizes should total several hundred dollars. We do not believe we can make a better investment than to put up some handsome prizes for the boys.

The boys of Walker have given a good account of themselves in the district corn contest and there is a possibility that a Walker boy may win the highest honors at Cartersville, and at Athens, where they meet the winners of the other districts. But the greatest good that comes from these contests is not the value of the prizes won by one section but the actual proof to the world and to southern farmers and southern boys that southern soils are as productive as any and that there is wealth in the old fields still, where proper methods of farming are used.—Walker County (Ga.) Messenger.

Origin of Pillow Lace. A European legend of the origin of pillow lace gives the credit for its discovery to Barbara Uttman of Nuremberg, Germany, in 1561. This is antedated, however, by two volumes of a book on lace printed in 1557 in Venice, copies of which are in the Manuscript Library, Valtella, and which explain several well-developed pillow lace patterns.

Gives Aid To Strikers.
Sometimes liver, kidney and bowels seem to go on a strike and refuse to work right. Then you need those pleasant little strike-breakers—Dr. King's New Life Pills—to give them natural aid and gently compel proper action. Excellent health soon follows. Try them. 25c at all Druggists.

The Matrimonial Game.
"Politics is like marriage, and you know what the pretty widow said about marriage at the seashore." The speaker smiled and continued:
"A somewhat pensive summer girl, at the end of a season that had left her further off than ever from the matrimonial harbor, looked sadly seaward and said:
"Well, marriage is a lottery."
"But a fair young widow whose engagement to a millionaire of fifty-two summers had just been announced—this fair young widow with a toss of the head retorted:
"Don't you believe it. It's a game of skill!"—Exchange.

Crafty.

"I know it, Maria; that's why I brought him to dinner. I want him to see how frugal we live. He's my principal creditor."—Chicago Tribune.

In Glorious Italy.
It has been observed that in Italy the memory does more than the eye. Scarcely a stone is turned up that has not some historical association, ancient or modern, that may not be said to have gold under it.

How to Converse.
In conversation men should not talk to please themselves, but those that hear them. Were this rule generally observed, it would make them consider whether what they speak be worth hearing; whether they be either wit or sense in what they are about to say; and whether it be adapted to the time when, the place where and the person to whom it is spoken.

Good Advice for Preacher.
Among the stories related by the late Rev. Dr. A. F. Pierson was one of a marble-cutter, with chisel and hammer, working a block of stone into a statue. A preacher who was looking on said: "I wish I could, on hearts of stone, deal such transforming blows!" "Perhaps you might," was the workman's quiet answer, "if, like me, you worked on your knees."

Always Better to Laugh.
Jane Jones said "Laughin' at trouble is a sight more sensible than cryin' at it. I've seen whole families broke up by one measly little quarrel, jes' because none of 'em had sense enough to know when 'twas time for laughin'. You can't stay mad long if all you git is laughin' at an' fun pokin'."

Good Idea in Belgium.
At Brussels a central library, consisting at the outset of 10,000 volumes, is to be created, and any inhabitant of any part of Belgium who owns a postoffice savings bank book will be entitled to borrow from it and receive by mail any book for a fortnight.

Healthful Mattresses.
All children should have separate beds, if possible, and mattresses are far more healthy than feather beds. All counterpanes should be removed at night, for they are heavier than blankets, and not good on the bed during sleep.

Infectious Laughter.
Some of our prominent scientists are so impressed with the germ path that they go around looking pretty solemn all the time, on the theory that laughter is both contagious and infectious.

Good Thing to Do.

One View of Morality.
In the media classes morality consists in being the same as your neighbor until your neighbor is found out.—Morley Roberts in "Thorpe's Way."

They Couldn't Help It.
A cross-eyed man in a street car turned around and bowed to a friend coming in, and almost every man in the car bowed to him.

Certain of Success.

The only time a man can really enjoy resting is when he knows that he ought to be at work.

Must Have Meant Paragon.
They could not have been otherwise than rather young, though I could not see them on account of the screen. "You're the only girl for me," he told her—"you're all my fancy painted you—the very paragon of womankind!"—Success Magazine.

Conquer Self-Distrust.
Self-distrust is the cause of most of our failures. In the assurance of strength there is strength, and they are the weakest, however strong, who have no faith in themselves or their powers.—Bovee.

Utilize Every Moment.
Know the true value of time; snatch, seize, and enjoy every moment of it. No idleness, no laziness, no procrastination. Never put off till tomorrow what you can do today.—Earl of Chesterfield.

Going Up Aloft.

Always.
When a man begins by saying: "I want to tell you a good joke on myself," you may be sure that he is going to try to make somebody else appear ridiculous.

Tha More Worthy.
The men who try to do something and fail are infinitely better than those who try to do nothing and succeed.—The Carlton Magazine.

Gaining a Bit.
At a Philadelphia club a discouraged musician was speaking to a friend concerning his latest work. He was extremely melancholy. "There's no denying it," he muttered; "I can't compose as well as I did five years ago."
"Oh, yes, you can," said the tried and honest friend to whom he made the confession; "it's only that your taste is improving."—Lippincott's.

Betel Nut Chewers.
Writing of the disgusting betel chewing habit, the United States consul at Siam says: "The green leaf of the betel pepper, smeared with red lime; tobacco, catechu and the areca nut make up the material used in betel chewing. This habit is quite universal among the Siamese, especially among the women. Siam does not produce enough betel nut for home consumption, but imports from India, Singapore and Java annually about 5,000,000 pounds."

Landon Poems Found.
The Walter Savage Landon exhibition at the London library is of great interest, comprising portraits, manuscripts and first editions from the important Landon collection of S. Wheelor, says the London Times.

The most interesting of the literary relics is a volume of manuscript poems and corrections by Landon which he himself described on a slip of paper (here preserved) as "swappings from under the study table." The papers in this volume were taken from Landon's writing desk more than thirty years after his death.
Some of the poems are unpublished, and in other cases there are to be found the original drafts of lines which appeared in print in an altered form. Other documents include a will written by himself in which he bequeathed pictures to Robert Browning and Mrs. Lynn Linton.

BE STRONG.
It is easy to quarrel. A weak man can do it if he can find some one to quarrel with, but it takes a strong man to return good for evil and even under strong provocation to endeavor to live peacefully with all men. Be a strong man.

An Englishman's Retort.
He had just arrived from old England, and his friend, a prominent clubman was showing him the city. In our suburbs they noticed a neatly fixed up candy store, which greatly surprised the stranger, and he inquired how that could be made to pay. The clubman remarked in answer:
"Why, I don't believe he can make his salt there."
The Englishman seemed bewildered and, adjusting his monocle, said:
"How strange! Do you expect a man in this country to make salt in a sweet shop?"
Haw, hawl!—San Francisco Chronicle.

The Sting Ray.
Of the many dangers which beset navigators of the tropical rivers of South America perhaps the natives fear the sting ray most. It is poisonous and is to be found in very large numbers when the river is low. That is the time when boatmen have to get in the water to push their canoes over the shallows. They are often stung by the tail of the ray and usually die unless medical assistance is promptly given. The ray cannot be seen, as it is of the same color as the sand on which it coils itself. The stab of its sharp knife-like tail is the unwary navigator's first intimation of its presence.—Pearson's Weekly.

Accommodating.
Senator Martine of New Jersey, the "farmer senator," was once relating in Washington memories of his farm life. "What quaint minds," he said, "have those New Jersey colored folk who work New Jersey's farms! I remember an old uncle who once paused in a job of potato hoeing to sing in my ears the praise of chickens."
"Chickens," he said, "is so accommodating! They're so accommodating, huh! You can eat 'em before they're hatched, and you can eat 'em after they're dead!"

An Umbrella Joke.
Gotham town is easy or not, just as Gotham town is in the mood. A practical joker had made for him a property umbrella which wouldn't open or do anything else a well brought up umbrella ought to do, honestly owned or wicked stolen. Then when the rain was coming down heavily one day he set it outside the door of his office in the corridor of a populous skyscraper for somebody to pluck when the office force was to follow the malefactor down the elevator and jeer him as he tried to put it up in the downpour. The umbrella stayed there all day. Not a soul would touch it. Oh, you New York!—New York Press.

Eggs in the Nest.
All birds have a systematic arrangement in depositing their eggs in the nest, and there are very few species, if any, in which some peculiarity is not to be seen if careful observation is made. Many birds so plainly and invariably show a tendency to a set arrangement that their habit is generally known.

Denmark's Sovereigns.
Denmark has had a most curious array of sovereigns, the Blue Tooth, Forked Beard, Simple, Hungry, Harfoot, Lamb, Pious and Cruel being among them. This latter, who was Christian II., belied his real name by gaining the additional title of the Nero of the North. There was probably little happiness in Denmark when he sat upon the throne.

As a Sort of Light Training.
Upgarson—Your cousin is a practicing physician, isn't he? Atom—He has discovered one or two specifics for cancer, I believe, but he hasn't settled down to regular practice yet.—Exchange.

The Missouri River.
The Missouri river drains a watershed of 550,000 square miles, and the mean total annual discharge is estimated to be twenty cubic miles, or at a mean rate of 94,000 cubic feet a second, which is more than twice the quantity of the water discharged by the upper Mississippi. It is by far the more rapid and the more turbulent of the two streams.

Changing Her Spots.
She was sobbing softly, and he was very much annoyed. He didn't like that hearted woman anyway. They had been long enough married—six months—for him to assert his prerogative as the master of the household.
"Oh, keep quiet! You act like a baby," said he by way of beginning "I don't know what you're crying about anyway."

She told him between sobs. "Why—why, you said—I—I—I was freckled. And—when you and I were—were lovers, you—you—you saw these same freckles, but you called 'em beauty spots then."—Philadelphia Times.

A Wingless Angel.
Bilson—Jimson seems to be devoted to his wife.
Timson—No wonder. She is the most angelic creature I ever saw. Why, I believe she could even keep a girl.—New York Weekly.

Huxley on Man.
Professor Huxley once wrote to Mrs. W. K. Clifford about men. "They are very queer animals—a mixture of horse nervousness, ass stubbornness and camel malice, with an angel bobbing about unexpectedly like the apple in the posset, and when they can do exactly as they please they are very hard to drive."

Averts Awful Tragedy.

Timely advice given Mrs. Wiloughby, of Marengo, Wis. (R. No. 1) prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. Doctors had said her frightful cough was a "consumption" cough and could do little to help her. After many remedies failed, her aunt urged her to take Dr. King's new discovery. "I have been using it for some time," she wrote, "and the awful cough has almost gone. It also saved my little boy when taken with a severe bronchial trouble." This matchless medicine has equal for throat and lung troubles. Price 50c $1.00 Trial bottle free, Guaranteed by all druggists.

The Knill Ceremony.
Dancing is a part of a semi-religious ceremony held at St. Ives, Cornwall, on the day of the feast of St. James. The people dance the old Cornish "Flurry" and "The Girl I Left Behind Me" and then sing "Old Hundred." After that they have a banquet, and small sums of money are distributed. The custom dates from a century ago, when a fund was established for the purpose by a man named Knill. It is known as the Knill ceremony.

Too Small For Him.

Spanish grantees delight in numerous names, even appropriating those that belong to their wives' families. One of these distinguished dons, wandering too far into the country, went astray on a lonely road late at night. He knocked at the door of a small tenement, the landlord of which from an upper window, shouted:
"Who is there?"
"Don Diego de Mendoza Sierra Ribero Guzman Pimentel Osario Ponce de Leon Guzman Accorora Tellez y Giron," replied the grantees.
"In that case," interrupted the innkeeper, closing the window, "go; there is not room here for half of you."

Is the World Growing Better?

Many things are to prove that it is. The way thousands are trying to help others is proof. Among them is Mrs. W. W. Gould, of Pittsfield, N. H. Finding good health by taking Electric Bitters, she now advises other sufferers, everywhere, to take them. "For years I suffered with stomach and kidney trouble," she writes. "Every medicine I used failed till I took Electric Bitters. But this great remedy helped me wonderfully." They'll help any woman. They're the best tonic and finest liver and kidney remedy that's made. Try them. You'll see. 50c at all Druggists.

Canaries to Detect Fire-damp.
A cage containing a canary is indispensable on approaching a mine after an explosion. Canaries and small warm blooded animals, such as mice, are, probably because of their extremely delicate organism, particularly sensitive to carbon monoxide. Thus a cage containing one or two canaries should always be taken with an advance exploration party. They are affected by minute quantities of this gas a short time before it will affect a human being.—Cassier's Magazine.

WINCHESTER
Repeating Shotguns
USED IN THE U. S. ARMY.
The U. S. Army authorities know a gun; that is why, when they decided to equip some troops with repeating shotguns, they selected the Winchester in preference to all other makes. The experts of the U. S. Ordnance Board also know a gun; that's why, after submitting a Winchester Repeating Shotgun to all sorts of tests, they pronounced it safe, sure, strong and simple. If you want a shotgun—buy the one whose strength and reliability led the U. S. Army authorities to select it and the U. S. Ordnance Board to endorse it—that's the Winchester.

Are You Nervous?
What makes you nervous? It is the weakness of your womanly constitution, which cannot stand the strain of the hard work you do. As a result, you break down, and ruin your entire nervous system. Don't keep this up! Take Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from purely vegetable ingredients. It acts gently on the womanly organs, and helps them to do their proper work. It relieves pain and restores health, in a natural manner, by going to the source of the trouble and building up the bodily strength.
TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic
Mrs. Grace Fortner, of Man, W. Va., took Cardui. This is what she says about it: "I was so weak and nervous, I could not bear to have anyone near me. I had fainting spells, and I lost flesh every day. The first dose of Cardui helped me. Now, I am entirely cured of the fainting spells, and I cannot say enough for Cardui, for I know it saved my life." It is the best tonic for women. Do you suffer from any of the pains peculiar to women? Take Cardui. It will help you. Ask your druggist.

TO OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

For the 99th time we want to ask you to write articles of general interest or to not write at all. How many of the Courier's readers care whether or not Sam Slick called on his best girl Sunday? A great many of us have done likewise at some time or other without creating any undue excitement. And is the fact that Tom Tall walked home with a belle from Cricket Heath Sunday, sufficient to set the gossiping world agog? Can't you see that those things interest but very few people? Then cut'em out. If you only knew it, you are capable of writing better things. Can't you see how the editor does you a kindness when he takes a blue crayon and draws a goat path through the median line of your manuscript and cuts out a lot of stuff which if it should appear in print would make you the butt of unpleasant criticism? Write something of interest or don't write at all.

So far as we are able to learn the cowardly cur who attempted to derail the passenger train near Stacy Fork last Saturday night is still at large. We regret very much that he cannot be apprehended and dealt with in the only manner befitting the perpetrator of such a dastardly act. A necktie party or a bonfire would be the only punishment commensurate with the awful crime he had in his heart to commit. The term, mercy, was never intended to apply to such a fiend in human form.

Hunt him down and rid the country of such a menace to the safety of its citizens and of such a blot upon its fair name.

Some one suggested after the fire that natural gas was the cause of it, but that theory was quickly exploded when it was made known that the store in which the fire originated was not heated—was only lighted—by gas and that there were no lights up stairs where the fire started. It is a fact that there is less danger attendant upon the use of natural gas than any other fuel and if every building in West Liberty were lighted and heated by gas the danger would be lessened one-hundred per cent.

Dr. Conwell has compiled two lists which he plans to send to medical men and hospitals. One is a list of composition which help the sick to get well. The other a list of harmful tunes.

The list of injurious music was taken through tests of nearly all the standard songs and hymns. Among those which are depressing are the following:

"Dead March from Saul," "Plyer's Hymn," "Home Sweet Home," "Do They Think of Me at Home?"

"Old Cabin Home," "Old Black Joe," "John Brown's Body," "Ben Bolt,"

"Star Spangled Banner," "We Are Tenting To-night," "Abide With Me,"

"Am I a Soldier of the Cross," "Must Jesus Bear the Cross Alone,"

"Behold a Stranger at the Door," "Depths of Mercy Can There Be,"

"God is the Refuge of His Saints,"

The following songs have been found helpful to sick and well alike:

"The Mighty Fortress of the Lord,"

"The Old Oaken Bucket," "Flow Gently, Sweet Afton,"

"When the Swallows Home-ward fly,"

"Coming Thro' the Rye," "Listen to the Mocking Bird,"

"Dixie," "Juanita,"

"The Last Rose of Summer," "My Old Kentucky Home,"

"Hush, My Dear, Lie Still and Slumber,"

"The Two Roses," "The Blue Danube,"

"Old Folks at Home," —Detroit New Tribune.

Elder W. F. Lykins, of Grassy Creek, will begin a ten days meeting here Friday night before the 4th Sat. Nov.

Deputy Assessor, C. W. Patrick, has completed Elk Fork precinct and is working in West Liberty, ward 1.

What has become of Pighead, Fair Play, Cow Boy and others, that at one time added much to the life of the Courier? For some cause they are silent, possibly taking a rest. Others have loomed up as able correspondents, continue for a while, and vanish away. What's the matter! We feel confident that the editor does his part in supplying stationery and giving the paper free. There must be a lack of energy on the part of the writer who fails to successfully abide in his calling. The most of the time for the past 18 years I have given my best effort in contributing to the pages of the different papers that have been printed at West Liberty. While I may be dropped from the list of scribes, yet I still retain an unabated willingness to help make our paper better as it grows older. Oh, yes, scribes, have you drifted into nonentity? If not, awake thou that sleepest and come forth and live.

Another Double Vote Day, November 15th. 15,000 Free Votes For Each $10.00 Turned in on Saturday, November 18th.

The race for Governor has now come to a close, but we do not expect the excitement of the people of Morgan county to be any less for the next few weeks to come for the race for first prize in the Courier's Great Contest is a race in which every good citizen of Morgan county is interested. What citizen would not be interested, for it is a race in which old Morgan county girls are the candidates and it is for them that men and women are going to vote. When a county has produced a great man, they are rightly proud of him, but no county has ever produced a man near so worthy of its love and emulation as its girls. Therefore, we urge every man and woman in Morgan county to lend your strongest support to some one of these girls who are competing for the prizes to be given in this contest. Now is the time to show them if you are really their friend and if you feel the interest in them that you should. Not one of them will blame you for the girl you vote for, but all will blame you if you do not vote at all. What manner of man is it who would go his length and to the end of his means to vote for McCreary or O'Rear and then fail to vote for the girl of his own home county? Now is the time for all good citizens to come to the aid of their favorite contestant.

Saturday next is the last day of the series of votes offered last week. We are also going to give double votes on all subscriptions brought in on that day. All contestants should turn in every thing possible on that day for a double vote offer is a splendid offer and you are sure to get double votes and perhaps you will win the 20,000 free vote offer too. Next Wednesday is also double vote day and on the following Saturday we will give 15,000 free votes for each $10.00 turned in.

ANOTHER BIG OFFER. We are going to offer a series of free vote offers. To the contestants bringing in the largest amount on subscriptions from Nov. 2nd to Nov. 11th we will give 20,000 free votes.

THE PRIZES.

The first prize is a beautiful $400 COTE PIANO and will be on exhibition within a short time. The second prize is a handsome $62 SEWING MACHINE and the third prize is a LADIES $25 GOLD WATCH. We are sure that the girls of West Liberty and surrounding country will exert their best efforts to win on of these prizes, for it is not often that such an opportunity is offered.

HOW TO WIN.

The way to win this piano is by getting the largest number of votes in the contest; votes to be secured by getting SUBSCRIPTIONS to the LICKING VALLEY COURIER. Now the way to win is to enter at once and go right to work and ask your friends to give you their subscriptions and to help you to get others. Get an early start and do not let any one get ahead of you. A scale of votes will be found elsewhere in this paper. The nomination coupon and a free voting coupon will also be printed. Cut these out, fill in your name and send them in. It costs you nothing to enter.

RULES GOVERNING CONTEST.

1. Any person of good repute may enter this contest by filling in the nomination coupon with their own name or by a friend sending in your name.
2. Only one nomination coupon
